

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION CONSTRUCTION TECHNOLOGY

Upon successful completion, students will possess the skills necessary to construct homes and other residential buildings. Central areas to be studied will include blueprint reading, foundations, framework, exterior openings, exterior and interior finishes. Specialty subjects such as electrical, plumbing, heating and cooling will be based on the Michigan Residential Code guidelines. Graduated students will be able to use their skills and experience to obtain a career in residential construction.

YEAR ONE

FALL SEMESTER		Credits	SPRING SEMESTER		Credits
CT111	Construction I: Intro. to Construction	5	CT113	Construction III: Interior Wall Finish	5
CT112	Construction II: Framing & Exterior Finish	5	CT114	Construction IV: Finish Carpentry	5
CT202	Material Estimating	3	CT122	Principles of Blueprinting	3
CT207	Construction V: Site Construction	4	CT208	Construction VI: Concrete & Foundation	4
TOTAL		17	TOTAL		17

Required credits for this curriculum = 34